

CENTER FOR CHILD PROTECTION

help. hope. healing.

In 2011, 725 children were interviewed at the Center for Child Protection. These are the children that survived to courageously tell someone about their abuse.

Over 9,481 services were provided to 3,342 children and adults. The services provided can often mean the difference between living in fear and having the resources to begin a new life. Below are the statistics of the children who live to hope for a brighter future and a better tomorrow.

Age of Children Interviewed

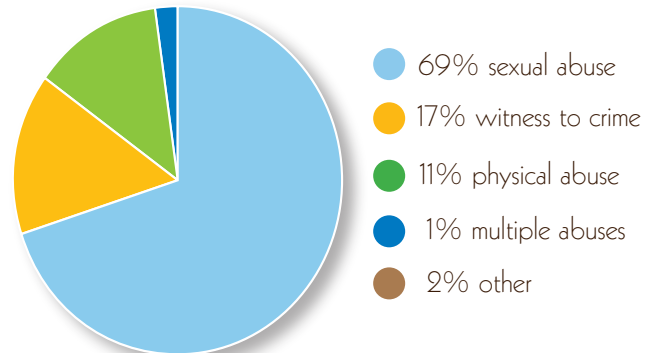

Gender of Children Interviewed

Race/Ethnicity of Children Interviewed

Types of Abuse of Children Interviewed

center for child protection
a children's advocacy center

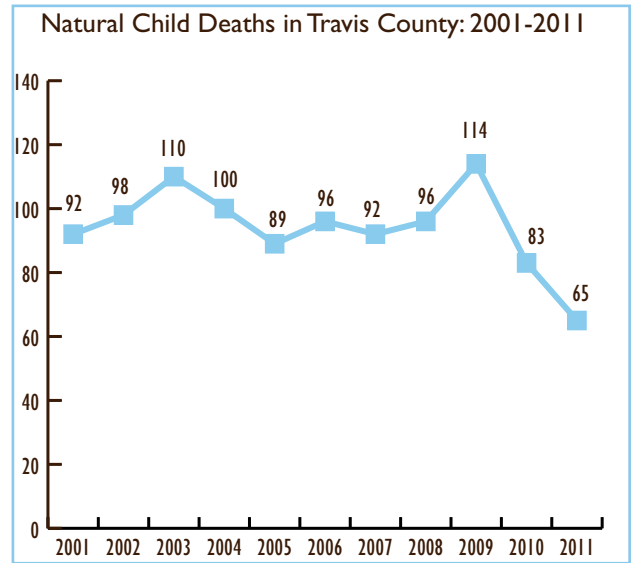

Travis County Child Fatality Review Team

2011 Annual Report

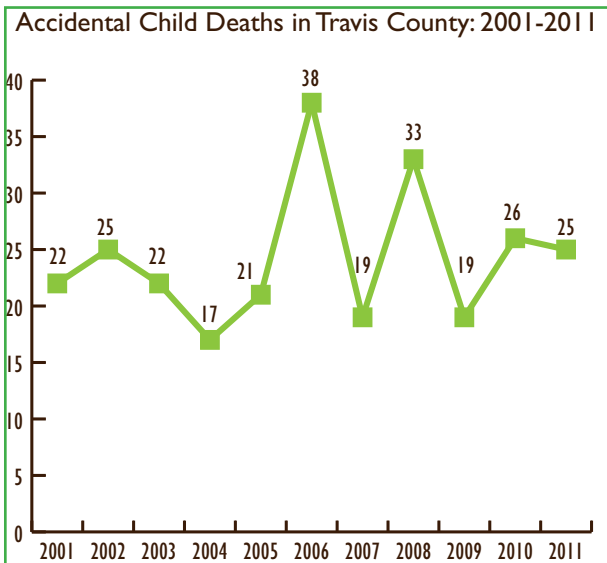

The Travis County Child Fatality Review Team (CFRT) is a multidisciplinary group consisting of law enforcement officials, medical professionals, social workers, prosecutors, and child advocacy professionals working together toward a single goal: to prevent the senseless and needless deaths of children in Travis County.

- 32 recorded child fatalities in 2011

- 65 children died from natural causes in 2011

- 25 children died from accidental causes in 2011
- 12 children died as a result of unsafe sleeping environments

- 4 children died in traffic accidents in 2011
- 3 children died from drowning in 2011

2011 Travis County Child Fatality Review Team

Austin Independent School District Police Department, Austin Police Department, Austin/Travis County EMS, Austin/Travis County Health & Human Services, Center for Child Protection, Community Professionals, Dell Children's Medical Center of Central Texas, Pflugerville Police Department, Texas Department of Family and Protective Services, Texas Department of Public Safety, Travis County District Attorney's Office, Travis County Medical Examiner's Office, Travis County Sheriff's Office.

A special thanks to Dan McClellan for compiling the statistics for this report.