Coping Kits

The Center for Child Protection strives to provide therapy and healing techniques unique to every child. Coping Kits give children the opportunity to try new coping methods when feeling upset or experiencing a difficult time. Help the Center distribute Kits to every child in need by assembling or donating kit items.

- Canvas Bag
- Coloring Books for Teens / Adults
- Colored Pencils
- Stress Ball
- Fuzzy Socks
- Journal & Pens
- Lavender Lotion
- Laminating Sheets
- Multicolored Sharpies - Regular Size

Add personality to the Kits by decorating the canvas bag with fun designs for boys and girls. The kids who receive these kits are ages 3-17.

If you, your family or company would like to donate or volunteer by creating Coping Kits, please contact Anne West at awest@centerforchildprotection.org or call 512.472.1164.
