

Annual Report 2024

CENTER FOR CHILD PROTECTION

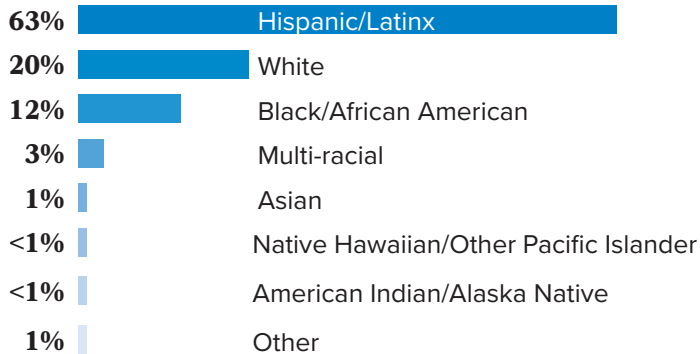

Every day, the Center for Child Protection serves approximately three to five new children who have experienced physical or sexual abuse, neglect, or have witnessed a violent crime.

These children come to the Center to bravely share their story and begin their journey toward hope and healing. Thanks to the unwavering support of the Travis County community, the Center is able to provide these children the critical services they need to move forward.

In 2024, the Center for Child Protection served:

1,695 CHILDREN & 1,160 ADULTS

Race

Allegation

Language

Age

Gender

Our mission is to reduce the trauma for children during the investigation and prosecution of crimes against children.
