Ready for some Bingo, Darling?

Promote your brand to 1,300+ influential women while supporting children in Travis County. Hosted by the Friends of Christopher Guild for 23 years, PlayBingo sells out the day tickets go on sale. This high-demand event offers a unique experience and raises vital funds for children impacted by abuse. Connect with Austin's top philanthropists and highlight your company's commitment to the community. Don't miss the chance to be part of this impactful, exclusive event!

Friends of Christopher Guild

The Friends of Christopher Guild was born out of our community's despair, frustration and outrage over the death of 2-year-old Christopher Wohlers in 1990. Formed by concerned women and mothers, the Friends of Christopher Guild is committed to sustaining and expanding the safety net for abused children in Travis County through support of the Center for Child Protection. Guild members volunteer tirelessly on behalf of Austin's children.

Center for Child Protection

The Center for Child Protection is a nationally accredited children's advocacy center and the only nonprofit in Travis County involved in the investigation and prosecution of crimes against children. For more than 30 years, the Center has been the first stop for children in Travis County who are suspected victims of sexual abuse, physical abuse and for children who have witnessed a violent crime. The Center is a child-friendly, specially equipped facility where children go for recorded forensic interviews, medical exams, counseling and intervention. All services are provided free of charge to children and their protective caregivers, and are available in English and Spanish.
